GREENFIELD TO HAVE TEAM

And Would Like to Enter the Twin State League

BRATTLEBORO FANS

LIKE THE PROSPECT

And Think This Development May be of Assistance in Securing an Increase in the Salary Limit — Bellows Falls Opposed.

Brattleboro baseball fans will be very much interested to know that Greenfield is to be represented by a strong team the coming summer because this opens up wide possibilities in the way of enlarging or improving the Twin State league. The decision of the Franklin county metropolis to put a team in the field comes a little late in the season, but there is a possibility that developments will open a way for it to gain admission to the circuit.

At the last league meeting, it will be remembered, the directors voted in favor of a weekly salary limit of $200 including the manager's salary. This limit was opposed by the Brattleboro representatives while the Bellows Falls managers were particularly insistent that it prevail, threatening to withdraw from the league if it did not.

Since the meeting there has developed in Brattleboro and in Northampton a strong sentiment against starting the season with the low limit. Fans point out the impossibility of maintaining a good team and a good manager on $200 a week, and say that an attempt to do so would result in one of two things: A team not fast enough to draw paying crowds, or an early fracture of the salary agreement.

The feeling of the Brattleboro subscribers on this question was recorded at the meeting last week when it was voted to put a team in the league only on the understanding that the limit should be changed to $200 a week exclusive of manager's salary. From articles that have appeared in Northampton papers it is believed that there will be no trouble in getting the Meadow City directors to take a like view of the matter, while Keene, which finished better financially than any other team in the league last year, would in all probability agree also.

Hence the feeling here is that in the event that Bellows Falls does not wish to remain in the league on a "living wage" basis the best thing for it to do is to drop out and let Greenfield have its place. This feeling should not be interpreted as a desire to eliminate Bellows Falls from the circuit, for nobody realizes any better than the local fans how manfully the upriver magnates have struggled to make ends meet. On the other hand, if it is a case of dropping Bellows Falls or attempting to run the league on a salary limit that is undoubtedly too low the first alternative seems to be the only one.

In speaking of the baseball situation in Greenfield the Recorder of that town has this to say:

Greenfield is to have a baseball team. Baseball enthusiasts have started the ball rolling and have elected John W. Horan of Greenfield manager, and George G. Ross, treasurer. The team will be known as the "Greenfield Greys." The time has come when Greenfield can easily support a team and an organization of this sort is a benefit to the town. Several years ago people interested in forming a band encountered considerable opposition but now Greenfield is recognized as possessing, and is justly proud of it, one of the three really good bands in the state. The thing can be done with a baseball team as was done with the band and Greenfield can have a team that will be proud of and that will make a name for the town throughout the state.

Mr. Horan managed the East Deerfield team last year and displayed marked ability along this line. He is an old baseball player, having played on a professional team in Rutland, Vt., and on the Black river academy team at Ludlow, Vt., while a student there. He has had men trying out for this team for some time and expects to use the best men from Greenfield and the East Deerfield teams, with outside players as needed.

Papers will soon be circulated for subscriptions and if enough money is secured the first few games is secured, a team is assured. Games are being negotiated for with teams from Orange, Adolph, Palmer, Indian Orchard, Ludlow, South Hadley, Holyoke, Lyndon and others. There is a possibility that if the right kind of support is given it may be possible to get into the Twin State league, but as it is rather late for dimes some doubt is felt along this line.

The management assures the people of Greenfield that no rowdiness will be tolerated and that a clean brand of baseball will be given them and that it hopes to open the season by the first of May.

ADVISES MOTHERS TO USE COMFORT POWDER

He says "A careful study of the ingredients of Comfort Powder fully convinces me that it possesses anti-septic, soothing and healing properties of the highest value. I have examined it by every method at my command including a practical test in a number of diseases and unusual conditions of the skin and in every case it verified the claims set forth for it."

Unlike ordinary talcum powders, Comfort Powder is skillfully medicated, that's why it is unequalled for all skin affections of infants or adults. Be sure you get the genuine with the signature of E. S. Sykes on the box.

of May. If the playground commission gets the athletic field ready at an early date it will help the team wonderfully. The season will probably be opened with the initial game at Shattuck park.

Sporting Notes.

Hans Wagner will be Pittsburg's captain. He is now 40 years old, but is as lively as a fellow half that age.

John Henry is again practicing with Washington. He feels that the injury to his knee is a thing of the past.

William H. Hollander, shortstop of the Georgetown university nine, will join the Washington club in June.

Capt. Partenheimer of the Amherst team easily starred at the bat in the first game of a series with North Carolina. He got a double and two singles out of four attempts. Robinson is pitching good ball for the purple and white.

The candidates for the Williams' varsity baseball team had their first out-door work Tuesday afternoon. Coach Coakley took them up on the campus near the baseball cage and gave them an hour's work there. In the afternoon it was cold with a high wind and the practice was under difficulties.

The Y. M. C. A. college football team is to play Williams at Springfield for the big home game of the season, the date being Nov. 1. In addition to Mann, the Springfield star, Bell and Dickens, the two fast ends, and Fountain in the backfield are all of the team of a year ago left for Coach McCurdy to build a new eleven around.

When the Detroit second team was playing in Baton Rouge a few days ago, Jean Dubuc made a record which probably will stand for years. He hit a ball which went 68 miles before it was found. Dubuc hit one of the pitcher's offerings and the ball flew over the fence and landed in the tender of a railroad engine that was passing. Four hours afterward the fireman on the engine picked the ball out of a pile of coal, and when he found it the train which his engine was drawing was 68 miles away from Baton Rouge.

On what the pitchers have shown to date, Griffith will be much better fortified on the slab this year than he was last. With Cashion, Engel and Gallia able to take their turns on the slab it will allow him to give Johnson, Groom, Herbert Witherspoon, one of the leading batters of the Metropolitan opera house, and Emily Wardwell Russell, soprano. The concert will be given in the Worcester festivals and has a seating capacity of 2,000. The Home Music club is a woman's club and the Chamber of Commerce is a men's organization.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.*MYSTERY AND FUN.

They are Combined in Officer 666 and Make an Amusing Farce.

A young millionaire globe trotter returning home to find his bachelor quarters occupied by a burglar who, not satisfied with having appropriated the millionaire's name and getting himself engaged to a pretty society girl on the strength of it, is rapidly disposing of a fine collection of paintings gathered by the aforesaid millionaire from the art centres of the world.

This is the situation when the curtain goes up on the first act of Officer 666, the new farce which Cohan & Harris will present at the Auditorium tomorrow afternoon and evening. How the real millionaire regains possession of his home and name, and how he eventually wins the hand and heart of the sweet young thing who has plighted her troth to a member of the light fingered gentry under the impression that he is a simon pure son of wealth and social position, is left to the telling of the players who people the cast of the new farce, which is a big and regular laughing success.

In working out the story of the play the rich young man induces a policeman on the block to lend him his uniform, and while he is masquerading as a "copper" to catch the burglar, the real officer becomes the millionaire's cook. The burglar, in the meantime, is allowed to continue in possession of the bachelor's quarters, but is eventually trapped and expelled to return his plunder. All these events are worked with speed and precision during the three acts in which Augustin MacHugh, the author of Officer 666, takes to tell the story that is said to be chock full of surprising situations, smart chatter and snappy epigrams.

BOLIN WON HARD MATCH.

Took Two Falls from Carl Brown, First in Seven Minutes.

Ed Bolin returned yesterday from Providence, R. I., where he won a hard wrestling match from Carl Brown of Iowa. That it was a hard one was borne out by the general appearance of Bolin, whose face looked as if he had been engaged in a boxing encounter instead of a wrestling match. He wrestled under the name of "Jack" Marmont. The match was arranged by Fritz Hansen and is said to have been one of the best seen in Providence in many a long night.

The first fall went to Bolin with a head seissors hold in the quick time of seven minutes. Brown had no intention of losing in consecutive falls, however, and at the end of 40 minutes of hard work he had defeated Bolin. It took Bolin one hour and six minutes to land the last fall, but he did it with a full body hold.

Connecticut Valley council, R. & S. M., in its annual assembly last evening, elected the following officers: T. I. M. Harry R. Randall; D. M., Christie B. Crowell; P. C. of W., K. P. Barrington; treasurer, P. F. Connors; recorder, William B. Vinton; C. of G., Charles H. Niles; C. of the C., W. J. Pentland, jr.; marshal, G. M. Clay; steward, P. F. Crow; chaplain, F. H. Vaughan; sentinel, J. Albert Taylor; trustee, William H. Vinton; incorporator of the building association for a term of three years, George M. Clay.

PRaise for Mrs. Russell.

Appeared in Concert in Worcester — Important Engagement May 13.

Mrs. Wyllis Russell of this town, soprano, and Henry Eichheim, violinist, assisted Arthur J. Bassett, pianist, in his annual concert Monday evening in Dean hall, Worcester, Mass. A Worcester paper said, in reporting the concert:

"Mrs. Russell sang in excellent voice, displaying a lyrical organ skillfully controlled and directed. Her sweet soprano has charmed audiences for several years and she is one of the most successful of the younger singers whose girlhood was passed in Worcester. She sang five songs in her first group. Her French and German lyrics were clearly enunciated. Her English song, presumably by Mr. Eichheim, was a sweet, little melody.

A joint concert will be given May 13 by the chamber of commerce glee club, which toured the country in 1907 as the Board of Trade Glee club, and the Home music club, assisted by Herbert Witherspoon, one of the leading basses of the Metropolitan opera house, and Emily Wardwell Russell, soprano. The concert will be given in Mechanics' hall, which is used for the Worcester festivals and has a seating capacity of 2,000. The Home Music club is a woman's club and the Chamber of Commerce is a men's organization.

The annual meeting of the trustees of the Brattleboro Free library was held at the library last evening. The following officers and committees were elected: Dr. H. D. Holton, president; H. B. Chamberlain, secretary and treasurer; F. K. Barrows, general manager; book committee, O. L. French, Rev. D. E. Trout, H. E. Eddy; committee of library room, F. K. Barrows, K. Haskins, Dr. Holton; committee on library, E. H. Crane, Dr. S. E. Lawton, Rev. M. J. Carmody.

ST. CHARLES COUNCIL GAINED.

Leo Council Still Has Lead of 64 Balls in Pool Tournament.

John F. Fitzgerald and F. E. Ferriter motored to Bellows Falls last evening and played two more games in the pool tournament between Leo council and St. Charles council of that town. Fitzgerald lost his match to Thomas Keefe by a score of 73 to 100, while Ferriter defeated John Usher by a score of 100 to 88. This leaves the term standings 743 to 680, a lead of 64 balls in favor of Leo council.

There are yet four games to complete the tournament and two of them will be played here Tuesday night, the remaining two to be played later at Bellows Falls.

SON OF FORMER ROADMASTER.

Foley of Princess Vaudeville Team Interested in Brattleboro.

The clever vaudeville team of Foley and Kelley appearing at the Princess theater for the rest of this week, traveled all day in order to get here for the evening performance yesterday, several detours being made on account of railroad troubles. Foley has an especial interest in appearing in Brattleboro as his father, J. K. Foley, formerly was a roadmaster of the Central Vermont and was in Brattleboro much of the time. It is the young man's first appearance here, but he says he feels familiar with the town, of which he had heard his father speak so often. His father is now in Costa Rica in the railroad business.

Ground was broken for three new houses on Prospect hill yesterday. George Croll will erect another house on Pellet street. Emilio Pellegrino will build a house on South Main street, and Holden & Martin have started the erection of a store at the end of the canal on South Main street.
